

What's happening in primary care?

- OHT Update – On July 11th, the Ministry of Health will be announcing the names of the first round of successful Ontario Health Team self-assessments and ask these candidates to put forward full applications. In ongoing efforts to keep primary care informed, the Mississauga Halton LHIN will be running a second OHT information session on Wednesday, July 31st from 6:30 – 8:30pm, at 2265 North Sheridan Way in Mississauga. Please register at <https://ohteducationinfosession2.eventbrite.ca> to attend in person or <https://ohteducationinfosession2webinar.eventbrite.ca> if you prefer to attend via webinar.
- Mississauga Halton LHIN Primary Care Advisors (PCA) – Your PCA for Milton, Kristen Raiskums, is available to meet with you and share information about the following:

 - Updated Trans Health Resource Guide and Trans Health CME events
 - Cancer Care Ontario FIT testing
 - eConsult
 - Dementia Care Academic Detailing

To get more information, or set up an appointment with Kristen, email her at kristen.raiskums@lhins.on.ca or call (416) 358-0387.
- Project ECHO – ECHO (Extension for Community Healthcare Outcomes) links expert inter-professional teams at an academic hub with primary care providers in local communities across the province. Healthcare providers register for ECHO programs at no cost! Providers join ECHO sessions via videoconferencing on a regularly scheduled basis, weekly or monthly, depending on the program selected. Visit the Project ECHO website <https://www.echoontario.ca/> for a full listing of course offerings and registration information.
- Halton Spoke Event: Mark Your Calendar! – The Primary Care Network is hosting a Spoke Event at the Milton District Hospital on Thursday, October 10th from 5:30-8:00pm. Please join us for a chance to meet and mingle with some local specialists in the hospital's Atrium followed by formal sessions from Anesthesia (Pre-Op), Palliative Care and Public Health. Details about registration and final presenters will be available from your Primary Care Advisor or on the PCN Website <http://primarycarenetwork-mh.ca/>
- Connect with the PCN – With all the changes to the healthcare landscape in Ontario, the Primary Care Network is a resource that can keep you connected, informed and most importantly, empowered as a leader in our health care system.
