

What's happening in primary care?

1. Primary Care Network website search engine gets a facelift

The Primary Care Network is excited to reveal its new website search engine. The search engine, listing over 120 resources, is a one-stop-shop for useful tools and information that PCN members have compiled based on their list of commonly referred to resources.

It's simple!

- a) Go to this website: <http://primarycarenetwork-mh.ca/resources/>
- b) Type in what you're looking for in the search bar

Resources

Search by keyword and/or categories

- c) Check off the category if you'd like to make your search more specific (you can also just check off a category without typing anything in the search bar)
